GABARITO

1. In some places in the world like Brazil, the medical perspective on LBP is limited due to incipient adherence to clinical …………GUIDELINES……………….. and other cultural …ASPECTS……..

2. Psychological elements, such as …………ANXIETY……………….. and ……DEPRESSION……. are some psychosocial expressions that impact low back pain outcomes in a negative way.

3. A patient's …POINT… of ……VIEW…….. impacts their LBP prognosis, whether it's negative or positive.

4. Tailored treatment can be pursued once ……MALADAPTIVE……….. views about LBP are pinpointed from the patient's perspective.

5. Same nociceptive ……INPUT.. creates diverse cerebral activations according to present misbeliefs.

6. Information on ……CLINICAL.. characteristics, sociodemographic elements and ……SLEEP… quality were considered in the analysis.

7. …STRESSFUL……….. life situations is one of the psychosocial agents included in the self-reported ………QUESTIONNAIRE……….. .

8. Brief …SCREENING……. Questions took into consideration social …ISOLATION…………. as social influences on LBP.

9. ICC stands for ……INTRACLASS…….   ………CORRELATION….. ……COEFFICIENT……….

10. When it comes to statistical dissimilarity, covariates such as health ……INSURANCE…… and …HOUSEHOLD………. income were used in logistic regression.

11. Effects of psychosocial factors on severe ……FUNCTIONAL….. limitation were evaluated by logistic regression in participants with LBP.